

March Camera Club

Data Protection Policy

The March Camera Club is established with the objects set out in its constitution, and is a data controller within the UK.

The personal information referred to in this Policy may include name, contact details, service records, records of entries to events and competitions, and such other information as may be necessary for the effective management of the legitimate interests of March Camera Club. Any person wishing to verify the information held by March Camera Club may apply to the Secretary.

March Camera Club also collects and holds personal information about:

1. The committee of itself and of its member Federations; others who assist those executive committees; and those offering their services to the PAGB community eg, as judges or lecturers.

· This information is used to facilitate administration and services. The information is compiled into a printed yearly programme and circulated to members of March Camera Club and the general public via the clubs website those named within it.

2. March Camera Club collects and holds contact information of its members necessary for the conduct of the business of March Camera Club.

· This information is used to satisfy a contractual requirement, and may be retained to confirm the outcome.

3. Photographers as the creators of Images used in the activities of March Camera Club.

· This information is managed subject to the General Conditions for PAGB Competition Events (qv).

March Camera Club may retain historical archives for example but not limited to, records of meetings, programmes, catalogues, awards and other event results.